

A Law Enforcement Financial Wellness Class

Policing Your Money

Date: May 8, 2024

Time: 12pm - 4pm

Limited to 200 Attendees

Location: Chief Anderson Room - Anderson Public Library

Address: 111 E. 12th Street in Anderson, IN 46016

Parking is Directly North of the Anderson Library

This Training is Open to Public Safety Employees, Spouses, and Civilian Employees of a Public Safety Agency

Sponsored by Indiana Drug Enforcement Association (IDEA),

Indiana SWAT Officer's Association (ISOA), and the Anderson Police Department (APD)

Information Covered:

- How to invest
- How to retire with dignity
- What to expect from Drop and your Pension
- Medicare - how it affects you in retirement
- Saving in your Deferred Compensation 457
- Investing your Health Savings Account
- Why a Will is important to you and your family
- Preparing yourself for later in life - NOW
- Why paying off your house is important

This training is conducted by

IMPD Lt. Klinton Streeter.

Klinton is a Certified Financial Coach and the lead instructor for the IMPD Financial Wellness Program.

Free Training

4 Hours

LE Credit

Registration Opens March 1, 2024

Registration Must Be Sent by Email From a Government Agency Email Address

Send Name(s), Agency, and Email Address(es) of those registered in the body of the email to: director@indianadea.com

An email confirmation will be returned.

