

HUMAN TRAFFICKING

Provided by: Northeast Counterdrug Training Center

Co-hosted by: University of Southern Indiana Dept. of Public Safety, MAGLOCLIN,
US Attorney's Office (SDIN), Indiana HIDTA

This course covers 16 hours of first-hand experiences and findings within organizations engaged in criminal activities supported by human trafficking. Human trafficking, smuggling, prostitution and modern-day slavery is in the United States and prospering with very little resistance. Every student will understand the immigration process and how it is being fraudulently abused. Students will be able to identify possible fronts located in their prospective areas of operation and will learn interviewing techniques and questions needed to identify, investigate, infiltrate, and convict these organizations.
