Across the country, law enforcement agencies are adapting to evolving public safety challenges through advanced training, strategic innovation, and stronger community partnerships. As part of National Police Week, the Senate Law Enforcement Caucus is hosting a briefing to highlight how agencies at every level are meeting these demands by investing in modern training programs that prepare officers for the complexities of today's policing environment.

The briefing is supported by a coalition of leading organizations, including the Association of State Criminal Investigative Agencies (ASCIA), Major County Sheriffs of America (MCSA), National Alliance on Mental Illness (NAMI), National Fusion Center Association (NFCA), National White Collar Crime Center (NW3C), Policing Leadership Academy (PLA), and VirTra.

Panelists:

- Tony Mattivi, Director, Kansas Bureau of Investigation (ASCIA)
- Bill Waybourn, Sheriff, Tarrant County, Texas (MCSA)
- Shannon Scully, Director, Justice Policy and Initiatives (NAMI)
- Bill Harris, Lieutenant, Delaware State Police (NFCA)
- Jim Emerson, Vice President (NW3C)
- Paul Duff, Deputy Chief, Wichita Police Department and PLA graduate (PLA)
- Lon Bartel, Director, Training and Curriculum (VirTra)
