

Ron Hantz!

OPENING SPEAKER WEDNESDAY MORNING

February 18, 2026

Survival Mindset - Tactical Criminal Interdiction is an introduction to Ron's 2-day Tactical Criminal Interdiction course designed to elevate your awareness, sharpen your instincts, and provide real-world interdiction strategies that place officer survival as the top priority.

Officers will be trained in various tactical options that reduce the chances of both accidental and felonious assault situations that place an officer in danger.

Survival Mindset - STOPS Tactical Criminal Interdiction

You'll learn how to assess behavioral cues, identify safe stop locations, and anticipate pre-assault indicators, all while maintaining command presence and tactical control. This session provides battle-tested methods for recognizing and responding to evolving threats, transforming every encounter into a calculated, professional, and survivable interaction.

Expect a focused, no-fluff approach centered on tactical mindset, officer safety, and interdiction success. Whether you're seasoned in the field or just beginning to embrace proactive criminal interdiction, this session will give you the confidence, protocols, and clarity to take control—and stay in control—on every stop.

Through Pro Train Inc. and STOPS USA, Ron Hantz continues to elevate training standards for law enforcement professionals nationwide, maximizing their chances of returning home safely at the end of every shift. Every course he designs, every lecture he delivers, and every mile he travels is motivated by a singular purpose — protecting those who serve.

His message is unequivocal:

"Your safety is non-negotiable, and your survival is our mission."
