

OUTLAW MOTORCYCLE GANGS

May 1st
12:00PM - 4:00PM

This FREE 4-hour training course will cover the following topics:

Recognition & Identification

1% club history and symbology

Club structure, hierarchy, and rules

Criminal activity and application of law

Intelligence gathering – current trends

Investigations

Conducting stops – national best practices and case law

Documentation – information sharing

Instructor:

Lt. Todd Wellmann spent 25.5 years with the Indianapolis Metropolitan Police Department, the last 13 years in the Criminal Intelligence Section. Since 2016, Lt. Wellmann has been the subject matter expert on OMG's and the sole point of contact with all clubs in Central Indiana. Lt. Wellmann has conducted hundreds of overt and covert surveillance operations on clubs, including assisting other agencies around the state and conducting interviews with various known members. Lt. Wellmann is the vice president for the Midwest Cycle Investigator's Organization (MCIO) and a national member of the International Outlaw Motorcycle Gang Investigator's Association (IOMGIA). Lt. Wellmann has been teaching about OMG's since 2018. This training will have a hands-on segment for conducting stops and searches.

Please RSVP to:

Chief Cory Heffelfinger

Auburn Police Department

Email: cdheffelfinger@ci.auburn.in.us

Phone: (260) 920-3200 ext. 1901

